Educator Bio Heather Guidice

Heather is the salon owner of Andrew James Salon in Cupertino, CA, one of the top producing Eufora salons in Northern California. She has a Bachelor of Arts in Education and has been in the education field since graduating college. After purchasing her salon, Heather quickly joined Eufora and has been a member of the Global Team since 2007. Heather places a high value on education and knows that Eufora is committed to driving this industry to excellence through on-going training. She wants to inspire people and get them excited about this industry. She is committed to training the business curriculum of Eufora, including getting owners and stylists excited about tracking their numbers. With Eufora Education, Heather is able to take her skills and apply them in a fun environment. She wants to encourage the independent salon to elevate their professionalism and know that it can be done through the classes that she teaches about Eufora's systems for success.
