

FOUNDATIONS I

3-Day Course

Precision haircutting systems are the foundation for all great creative haircuts & styles. This advanced technical curriculum provides instruction in a defined, precision English haircutting system focusing on classic, horizontal perimeter shapes, blunt & graduation. Seasoned stylists as well as recent beauty school graduates learn that excellence in this core haircutting system is a critical component of success behind the chair. Course includes theory, demonstration & hands-on instruction & business building strategies.

Artist:

Gerard Annunziato Director, YOU School Academy

Gerard Annunziato entered beauty school with an open mind & by the end of his first day of classes, he was in love with the creativity & potential of the profession. He excelled in technical skills & graduated in the pivotal era when the haircut/blow-dry combination became a trend. His first cuts were '70's shags.

In time, Gerard sought more education & left the chair to train with Vidal Sassoon. Several years later, he had gained additional hairdressing experience with Vidal Sassoon, the Plaza Hotels Salon & Saks Fifth Avenue in New York. Gerard traveled & earned recognition as a platform artist for several major companies. His most notable achievement was back-to-back Gold Cup awards representing the United States at the 1983 and 1984 Festival Mondial in Paris & Cannes, France. Gerard has designed retail centers & led educational programs for several salon enterprises in Florida.

"Gerard's greatest strength is his ability to begin with a general concept & teach it all the way through to the specific details," says Don Bewley, Eufora founder & CEO.

"Learning those details makes the difference between being a good hairdresser & being a great hairdresser."

Gerard now travels between his home in south Florida & San Diego, California, where he is fulfilling a life long dream... Heading up YOU School, Eufora's Advanced Training Academy, dedicated to the advancement of technical, creative & business skills for hairdressers, by Eufora International.
